1. Funeral and Exchange: Open series with CALLAN'S funeral. The two previous Hunters, Redd and Squires are there, so are Cross, Meres, and a terribly sad, sobbing Lisa. So is a faceless gentleman from the Other Side. Basis of plot is that CALLAN has been captured by Them, and we have their top agent, Lonsdale. To prevent newspaper headlines and a diplomatic rocking of the boat, both sides agree that their respective man is dead. This will enable an exchange to take place without publicity or public attention. CALLAN is supposed to have died of a heart attack. We see CALLAN and Lonsdale in their respective places of captivity, being interrogated, CALLAN carving out soldiers. Lonely discovers that CALLAN is not dead, puts the whole plan in jeopardy. CALLAN and Lonsdale exchange. They meet briefly, we shall see Lonsdale again.

2. CALLAN, back from captivity, becomes the new Hunter. Cross doesn't take to it too kindly. Lonely is getting to know too much and finds himself under sentence of death, CALL ME SIR.

3. CALLAN is still Hunter. Lonely becomes an auxiliary part of the Section. Gets a cab drivers licence and becomes the driver of the section's own taxi - radio controlled. Meres returns to the section from Washington. CALLAN has no easy job maintaining his authority as Hunter.

4. Harassment of a diplomat. The section is ordered to harass one of Their diplomats. They are harassing one of ours so we return tit-for-tat. Orders are not to step over the line, only to make life sour for the man and his family. Cross plays a leading part in this dirty job and gets to hate the assignment. Actually we are waiting to see which of our people they will expel in retaliation. In other words we want to find out if they know which of our men over there is our key agent.

5. Cross commits suicide. CALLAN feels guilty, goes after the man who he thinks murdered Cross. For a Hunter to become operational himself is a number one crime. CALLAN discovers that he has killed a man who admittedly was one of their agents, but was in no way responsible for Cross's suicide. Big guilt situation. CALLAN is fired as Hunter - New Hunter appears.

6. Reprise of SUDDENLY AT HOME. CALLAN very much taken with the sister of Zena Walker who was murdered by the KGB, in SUDDENLY AT HOME. But because of what CALLAN is and what he does, she will not have anything to do with him.

7. Section in clash with SPECIAL BRANCH. SB officer killed? SB and section dislike wach other intensely and it is a clash between two toughies.

10. Big story revolving round Lonely.

11. Lonsdale returns to Britain. The two old sparring partners meet up.

12. Safe House. CALLAN and Lonsdale alone in a house for the entire episode. These are the supreme opponents. They respect each other enormously and neither trusts the other an inch.

13. Gun fight at the OK corral. Lonsdale and CALLAN settle it over High Noon.
